Georgian National Song & Dance Company Program

The program of "Iveria" ensemble is centered on Georgian folk singing and dancing, which are distinguished for their diversity of genre and original style of execution whose traditions were transmitted from one generation to another.

"Iveria's" performances are fine evidence the Georgian folklore is rich and exceptional.

These young but remarkable singers and dancers whose art is infused with great talent, warm feelings and good will, are just as modest reserved.

Its dances in all their numerous varieties are as exhilarating as they are spectacular. The movements, with their exclusive preciseness and complexity, are accompanied by a smile which reflects the Georgians pride. It is present in every scene from festival to the battle for ones native country. There are youths dancing on their toes, and young women who seem to be rather flying than dancing.

In its virtuoso performance of legendary folk dances depicting festive and other occasions, the ensemble displays both vivacity and a fantasying coloring, which bring out the beauty of Georgian dances.
